There is no doubt that real life and virtual life have a lot of cons and pros.

To begin with, virtual life can help you find friends from different places in the world. Also virtual life has a lot of entertainments such as games, books etc.. But on the other hand you will become unsocial in real life because of it.

Above all, real life is a basic construct of human being. I think everyone should build healthy relationships with people around. Real life has lots of good things like hugs, eye contacts, jestures and so on.

For me, I prefer real life better because I love to have conversations and chats with people around.

Some people think that computer games are better than life, and I think it's a very said statement. These people might think that ~~was~~ because they ~~are~~ have believed bullied in real life, ~~they~~ there are misunderstending between gamers and other people.

I think computer games can not be better than a real life if you have friends. Real life can be fun and interesting if you're not alone. Person ~~that~~ who says that games better than a real life is just alone. He don't feel support from his family and mates. doesn't

My conclusion is people that say computer games are better than real life just need friends, ~~not~~ not just classmates, but real friends.

Today people prefer playing computer games and hang out with their gadgets more than having a good time outside with their friends or spending some time with family. New devices just integrated in our world ~~rapidly~~ more rapidly than we could notice.

From my prespective, computer and other video games shouldn't make us sitting at home or having a "created and not real" life.

Because it's very important to leaving your place, doing sports and just breathing fresh air. Computer games also don't give us an opportunity to help our parents with house chores and visiting cinema ~~for~~ in order to watch new blockbusters.

I absolutely can't agree with the statement that computer games are better than life. Your "computer life" can damage your real life and influence on your helalth. I guess, every human should be accurate with this kind of hobby.

Is virtual life in games better than real life? Some people think that is true. I can agree with them because computer games have some advantages.

In virtual games people can do whatever they want. There is no limit in money, things, objects, their actions, physics laws. If you cannot do something in real life, you have a possibility to do it in computer games. Also computer games are much more interesting than boring everyday routins in reality. That is why some people think of computer games as a better version of real life.

In conclusion, I would like to say that the main reason why people think that computer games are better than life is that computer games are very interesting and people can do everything they want.

It's commonly known that we live in the technological era and computers' role in our daily lifes is vital. However, some people prefer virtual reality to real life which leads to negative consequences.

First and foremost, people, playing computer games too much loose their social skills and ruin their meaningful bonds with family and friends. Besides, spending a lot of time in front of the computer negatively affects our vision. Furthermore, specific games can even cause mental diseases and, especially, make teenagers cruel.

In conclusion I would like to say that people living in virtual reality is a real problem with which we need to fight by letting them know that real life is incredibly interesting and exciting, and spending it in front of the computer is not the best choise.

Hello, dear Tom
How are you? I hope you are okey. Thanks for your interesting mail!
I like my town so much. It is very beautiful, cute and clean town. People here try to keep our town clean and beautiful, me and my friends too.
Syntax } But I want to live in city bigger then Khanty-Mansiysk when I will be a student because here I don't have many places to go on weekends or on holidays. It's very boring. In my free time I go walking with my friends or reading.
Are you thinking of travelling to Russia next summer? It is amazing! Russia is very beautiful country with interesting and long story. Summer is the best time to visit my country. I think weather will be okey, but take with you warm jacket, because of cold winds and cloudy days.
Please, tell me some facts about your city.
Love,
Ksenia.

Hi! I'm Olya and I live in Khanty-Mansiysk. I like my city too and I saw that in your opinion Manchester's people aren't very friendly. I think in my town people are quite pleasure and kind so that is the reason for you to come here. I really enjoy living in a small town with its own atmosphere. But when you want to go to theme park, you can't do it because there is no good attractions. Anyway, Khanty-Mansyisk is a lovely place.

In my free time I usually go for a walk or watch films at home. In my town quite cold because we are live in the North part of Siberia. In summer you should expect cold and rainy or hot weather. But sometimes weather can be normal. It can be sunny and warm.

Hope you'll come to my town, Tom.

All the love, Olya
